Full Description

Alexander Hudson Estates introduce to the market this spacious four-bedroom semi-detached house, thoughtfully arranged to offer flexible family living across two bright and airy reception rooms and a modern kitchen. The property welcomes you with a stylish hallway featuring contemporary panelling and a distinctive feature wall. Two inviting living areas, each with large bay windows and modern fireplaces, provide generous spaces for both relaxation and entertaining. The open plan layout flows naturally into a bright, well-appointed kitchen, complete with sleek units, integrated appliances, and ample natural light. Upstairs, four well-proportioned bedrooms benefit from built-in storage, neutral décor, and large windows that enhance the sense of space and comfort. A modern family bathroom with a contemporary bathtub and elegant tiling completes the accommodation.

Additional benefits include a spacious, low-maintenance garden accessible via sliding or glass doors - ideal for outdoor dining, family gatherings, or children's play. The front of the property offers off-road parking, a charming garden area, and a garage with a distinctive blue door, providing secure parking and extra storage. Throughout, the property combines modern finishes with practical touches such as built-in wardrobes, radiator heating, and plenty of natural light, making it an appealing choice for families seeking a comfortable and versatile home in a popular residential setting.
